The Classic Motor Cycle Club of Victoria Inc COLAC SECTION 18th COLAC WEEKEND RIDE 1st and 2nd of May 2010

The Colac Section of the CMCCV invites members to come and enjoy a weekend of Classic Motorcycling.

Saturday Run Riders assemble at the playground near the Lake Colac boat-launching ramp from 9:00am for a 9:30am start. To get there from the Melbourne side, cross the Barongarook Creek Bridge, turn right into Queen Street, continue to the "T" intersection and turn right again. Today is the main run day. We will ride from Colac to a morning tea stop at Apostle Whey Cheese, located in the heart of the Heytesbury. This business is a working dairy farm which produces an array of speciality cheeses on site. We continue the ride to Princetown and on to Lavers Hill. We will have a light lunch at the Otway NouriShed located at Ferguson. This place was once a potato shed, now converted into a unique country store loaded with character and rustic charm. After lunch the ride continues through Beech Forest and across Turtons Track to the Apollo Bay Rd. and return to Colac. Turtons Track is a 40 kph speed limited, sealed tourist road through the bush. Ride distance today is just on 200km.

Saturday Evening Dinner tonight is at the Colac Central Hotel-Motel, 10 Murray St. Colac, at 6.30pm.

Sunday Run Meet again at the boat launching ramp at 9:00am. We will be leaving at 9:30am. Today's ride will be around 100km, returning to Colac to have lunch at a local eatery.

General Information

There is an entry fee of $5.00 for bike and rider, plus $3.00 for morning tea on Saturday, payable on the day, at the start before leaving
